

“Why are you here...and are you poured out for Jesus”

Luke 7:36-50

Now one of the Pharisees was requesting Him to dine with him, and He entered the Pharisee’s house and reclined at the table. And there was a woman in the city who was a sinner; and when she learned that He was reclining at the table in the Pharisee’s house, she brought an alabaster vial of perfume, and standing behind Him at His feet, weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears, and kept wiping them with the hair of her head, and kissing His feet and anointing them with the perfume. Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he said to himself, “If this man were a prophet He would know who and what sort of person this woman is who is touching Him, that she is a sinner.”

Personal Questions / Application:

1. What is my motivation to be in the presence of Jesus? Am I here to truly worship Him, or am I here because that is where I go on a Sunday morning?
2. Do I truly recognize how precious Jesus is, or do I “neglect such a great salvation?”
3. Do I try to see people as God sees them...created in His image...loved?
4. Am I fully or partially “poured out for Jesus?”

“Christ cancels sins in order to awaken love in our hearts.”
